Maple Leaf in Germany's Heartland

Canadian Town Flourishes at Soest

The town has its own Community Council which rules on community affairs and directs its efforts to raising funds for various community projects such as hockey teams and playgrounds. Mayor Major Bob MacDermid presides.

"Little Canada," as the town is known, has its own radio station and newspaper. Above, Editor Captain Jim Mitchell (left) of Winnipeg checks the makeup in printing plant of Wesphalia Post.

Like millions of their fellow countrymen at home, families live in modern apartments and duplexes. On Sundays they are able to attend churches of every familiar denomination.

Canada's NATO soldiers have created a favourable impression in Europe as a top-notch professional force. Above, men of the 4th Infantry Brigade take a break during morning manoeuvres.

Deep in Germany's industrial area east of the Ruhr Valley, 5,500 officers and men of Canada's 4th Infantry Brigade have, with their wives and children, built a model community of 10,000 members — a town as Canadian as the Maple Leaf and with the added flavour and zest which inevitably seep in from their European hinterland. Above, children dash from their typical modern Canadian school (near Soest) at the end of the day.

PHEASANT HUNTING PROVES GOOD—Walt Berry, Wm. Marshall and Charles Leary, three Regina businessmen, shown here (left to right) proudly display their bag of 12 pheasants taken in the south country on the opening day of pheasant season (October 4). The 12 birds were taken in a three-hour hunt.

On the P. F. Froese farm at Homewood among the best owned by the P. C. Grandin, who are employed on the Froese farm, all the cows are remarkable in that one of the cows involved has now had five calves in three summers. And she's only three years old. When she was one year old the cow gave birth to a single calf. But now she gave birth to a set of twins and another to a single calf. And now she's giving birth to a set of twins. The twins, born to the Froese type.

Canadian residents enjoy frequent visits to neighbouring towns and countryside. Jim Gilmore and his wife, Helen, above, (both of Weston, Ontario) enjoy a tour through the colourful walled city of Soest.

IN HIS SERVICE

It's time to wake up, God is calling you

By JIM FAIRFIELD

What has God been doing to you lately? Have you felt uncomfortable with yourself, have you been up to here in a domestic or human problem, are you among the restless ranks of the unemployed? This may be the most important happening in your life, if you do the right thing right now. If you do the only thing and recognize your inability to rule your own coast and wake up to who the real boss is—God, the Mighty Maker.

Or, see "ages are apt to happen, as God sees you out. It is a restless age, the one in which we live; farm prices change, industries climb and fall, and the economic bands shift treacherously. People move around from city to country, seeking a place to put down physical "roots" in a society and in a way of life more suitable than the one they left. Are you restless—has God moved you to seek?

Where say you? What about your mind and your nervous system? Instead of a physical move, God may be working on the inside man in an equally disturbing fashion. Studious people, doctors, nurses, analysts, and all kinds of "people" are talking about the pace of modern living—yet rarely does anyone do anything about it except go a little faster. God's hand is obvious in this too, if you look closely.

Praise the Lord that a few men have been chosen to wake up to Him, when so very many do not. So many who cannot see the forest for the trees, struggle physically and nervously against what is happening to them. These are the many who go faster or slower, instead of turning to the Lord to see why He is pushing.

When men rely on their own ability to control their lives, regardless of their rights and man-made society, they cannot and will not see God working in everyday personal concerns. This is denying confidence, and God revealing grace, are deadly. When He calls, you will stay obstinately unaware of Him, at your peril. "May not O man, who are thou that resistest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?" Romans 9:20

Wake up

Why must God shove you around? Humble yourself before Him, become aware of Him, and you will never regret it. He is not an imprudent God, nor is He the Omnipotent One, who can manage your life much better than you can, and bring peace and joy to replace pressure and despair. You can't hide from Him, and you can't be too busy for Him. He will not accept excuses, no money excuses; He wants you and is calling you, on His terms, today. "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." John 3:3. "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the spirit is spirit." John 3:6. "But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit, and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him." John 4:23.

Today's smile

Junior was such a little terror, his father was surprised when his mother suggested they buy him a bicycle. "Do you think a bike will improve his behavior?" the father asked.

"Praxley, inc." said the mother. "But it will spread his behavior over a wider area."

"I'm darned if I can figure out what's wrong with you," said the doctor. "I think it must be too much drinking."

"That's all right, Doc," his patient replied. "I can cover back when you're asleep."
